How do I give and receive HOPE?

The "most beautiful gift" the Catholic Church and its members can give the world is a reason to live with hope. The Christian cannot be satisfied with having hope; he or she must also radiate hope, be a sower of hope.....The Holy Spirit is the ever-gushing source of Christian hope. In the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul says, "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit."

Hope is not "a passive virtue, which merely waits for things to happen, rather, it is a supremely active virtue that helps make them happen." Christian hope should be shared "with gentleness and reverence," as the First Letter of Peter says, "because it is not so much the strength of the arguments that will convince people, but rather the love that we know how to put in them. This is the first and most effective form of evangelization."

One way of sharing our hope is "to be with others" especially in times when others are struggling. As St. Francis says when preaching the gospel – only use words if necessary."

A YEAR OF HOPE: INTRODUCTION TO THE JUBILEE YEAR: How can we respond to Pope Francis' call to be "tangible signs of hope" in this Jubilee Year?
