St Bernadette’s Centre is a new Community Interest Company (CIC) being established in the heart of Bolsover at our former church of St Bernadette. Fr John is a director of this new company. The Centre will be a welcoming multi-purpose community space supporting local families, volunteers and residents through a range of activities, services and facilities. This work will be part of the missionary outreach that Bishop Patrick is calling all parishes to become involved in.

We are initially calling for volunteers to join us on Thursday 30th April at 10.00am for three hours, or for as long as you can spare, to help in preparation for the Centre’s official opening. Hopefully volunteers on the day may be inspired to commit regularly to the work of the Centre. If you can spare time on Thursday 30th April, please let Fr John know or Catherine in the office. With my thanks – Canon John.
